

Virginia Sprint Series
IMCA RaceSaver Sprint Series
Race # 15 Saturday September 16th 2023
Langley Speedway Hampton, Va.

by Jim Haines

Jerald Harris Hauls at Hampton

Jerald Harris in the Harris Movers sprinter sure had a handle on the Langley Speedway Saturday as he led every lap he was on the speedway for a convincing win, his series leading third win of the year.

Heats kicked off the night with Caleb Harris taking his first win in heat one and Jerald Harris taking win in heat two. Jerald Harris and Matt Mullins lead the field to green with a bad outcome leaving Chris Humblet and Aaron Leach being towed to the in field and finished for the night. The second start was a good one as Harris jumped out and had Mullins right behind with Caleb Harris in third and Matthew Leach fourth.

Harris was on a rail lap after lap with Mullins holding on the second as Leach made his way to third. Leach was all over Mullins when they got to traffic but Mullins stayed smooth and limited chances for Leach to pass. Harris was cruising as he took the final lap and completed the sweep of the night as Mullins pulled away to come in second.

At the line it was Jerald Harris, Matt Mullins, Matthew Leach, Caleb Harris, Bill Mullis, Daren Bolac, Travis Wall, Jimmy Humblet, Chris Ware, John Smith, Chris Humblet, Aaron Leach and Tony Harris.